Home office budget agreement

The undersigned:

A. The private company with limited liability Digital Power BV, established and with offices in Amsterdam at the H.J.E. Wenckebackweg 123, registered in the Trade Register of the Chamber of Commerce under number 66,329,248, herein duly represented by Mr. R. de Boer, in the position of Director, hereinafter to be referred to as 'employer';

and

B. FULL NAME, born DATE, hereinafter to be referred to as 'employee';

Declare to have entered into a home office budget agreement under the following terms:

Article 1 – Budget

1.1 For the purpose of performing his/her duties, the employee can make use of the opportunity to improve his/her workplace in the home situation. Employer will make a budget available to the employee for these improvements of € 1,000,- (including VAT).

1.2 This budget is to be used in whole or in part for the entire duration of the employment relationship between employer and employee, after successful completion of the probationary period, in accordance with the articles described in the 'Remote working regulations'. The remaining unused portion also remains available to the employee until the termination of the employment contract by the employee of employer.

Article 2 – Depreciation period

2.1 Ownership over the items is granted for a period of 5 years, regardless of the purchase value of the items or the duration of the employment contract between employee and employer. Upon termination of the employment contract between the employee and employer within the period of use (regardless of the manner in which the employment contract will be terminated), the employee is obliged to take over the items. When there is a repayment obligation, the employee agrees that these costs will be settled with his/her (last) salary.

2.2 Depreciation takes place on the basis of €200 per year of the amount claimed and starts at the moment the item's costs are/have been claimed.

Article 3 – Costs

3.1 The employee has the freedom to claim costs incurred via AFAS within the budget as described in Article 1 of this agreement, as described in the 'Remote working regulations' appendix B.

Thus agreed upon and signed in duplicate:
